

Riparian Brush Rabbit Festival

April 29, 2006

San Joaquin River National Wildlife Refuge
2714 Dairy Road, Vernalis, CA 95385

Celebrate the efforts to bring the Riparian Brush Rabbit back from the brink of extinction!

Art Contest

WHO? All children 12 yrs and younger are invited to participate in the Annual Riparian Brush Rabbit Art Festival.

WHAT? We are looking for creative artwork to celebrate the conservation of the Riparian Brush Rabbit and its habitat in the San Joaquin Valley.

WHEN? The contest starts now and final artwork must be submitted to us by April 21, 2006.

WHERE? Send the artwork to Jack Sparks, San Joaquin River National Wildlife Refuge, P.O. Box 2176, Los Banos, CA 93635.

CONTEST RULES:

- 1) Size of artwork shall be no larger than 12" x 18".
- 2) Theme is Riparian Brush Rabbit and habitat.
- 3) Print your name, age, address and phone on the back of your entry.
- 4) Any medium is acceptable for artwork except computer generated.
- 5) If you would like your artwork returned, please collect your entry at the Riparian Rabbit Festival, April 29, before 12 PM at the San Joaquin River National Wildlife Refuge.

Winners will be announced at the Riparian Rabbit Festival on April 29th.

For more information, phone Jack Sparks at (209) 826-3508.